Construction of the Konin lignite project, including a briquette factory and a tar distillation and low temperature carbonizing plant, was temporarily suspended because the technological equipment was not yet complete. The purchase of turbines and boilers also involved serious difficulties. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] turbines required [REDACTED] were ordered from [REDACTED] Czechoslovakia. New deadlines for the completion of the project were to be fixed by a Polish commission, expected to arrive in Berlin during the week after 1 November 1953.
